

“Coming To America’s Brink, 4 Seconds To Change An Entire State’s Voting Results, And More”

A Commentary

By a soul

October 31, 2016

In Honor of All Saints

Earlier, I was listening with my headphones to the investigative reporting of Alex Jones (<http://www.infowars.com>) while at my full-time job (I work for a private university). And while listening, I heard something so astonishing that it made me gasp out-loud at my desk.

On today’s program, Alex Jones had a voting fraud expert, Bev Harris, speak about how the results of the electronic voting machines can be manipulated in real-time in favor of one candidate over another. And Bev Harris demonstrated that the voting results of an entire state can be altered in 4 seconds. The reason it is possible is because of a hidden decimal program that is built into a computer file (“Gem”) in the software of possibly 99% of the electronic voting machines that will be used in the United States of America for the November 8, 2016 Presidential Election.

I was shocked... And I have been praying about it, because even though Donald Trump has the majority edge to win the presidency, I know that the votes are going to be stolen in so many ways come November 8th. God have Mercy on America.

There are so many things that are coming to a head now—from all different angles and all different ways... I was reminded today about a heavenly message given through Locutions To The World, where the Blessed Mother talked about bringing people and nations to the “brink” in order for them to turn back from their sins. I have included the complete message below, but coming to “America’s Brink” is really what it feels like God is doing right now to my country (which will profoundly affect the world).

I really believe that Donald Trump—and the movement he is spearheading—is bringing us to the ultimate moment of decision for my country. America is being brought to the brink—to the final point where we still have a chance to fully turn-around—the last chance—before destroying ourselves on a most foolish path—an evil choice and an evil course of action.

I was also reminded of another heavenly message, also, in Locutions To The World, in which Our Lord, Jesus Christ, talked about the “script” that satan had written for his “plot” of pure evil in our day, The End Times. And, in particular, Jesus said:

“What is the conclusion of his drama? Is there any doubt? He wants to turn earth into a hell, the whole earth, not just the Middle East. Satan wants to cast his fire upon the earth before I can cast my fire.”

“He does not know, however, that I intend to destroy his story, to send people onto his stage that would change the plot so he does not succeed. If his drama is allowed to unfold according to his time table, more and more of the world will be destroyed...”

And when I was reminded of these words of Our Lord, it made me think that Donald Trump is one of these actors—one of those people that Jesus is sending onto the world stage to change satan’s drama from not being successful. And I truly hope that he is given a chance to become our President.

The Blessed Mother said recently in a message at Holy Love Ministry (<http://www.holylove.org>) that I have provided below, that a “favorable outcome of this election” (i.e., a Trump win), “would give greater honor and glory to God than ever before.” I think about these words of Our Lady and I am in awe of how great a favorable outcome would be. How God would be So Glorified and how so many prophecies would be affected for the better.

I mean, I think to myself, is nuclear war really inevitable?

Does humanity really have to have such a bad future in the End Times?

There are so many prophecies I would love to change... Can we change them? Through loving prayer and honest sacrifice and good-will towards one another?

This is why I believe in heavenly messages like Locutions To The World, etc. Because I see the Blessed Mother paint a beautiful world that I want to strive for. In one message, Jesus said that He would bring the nations together into a particular moment where they would get to choose to live for God or not. And Jesus said that most of the nations would choose to live for God in brotherly peace and God would give freely from His ever-abundant bounty.

The Blessed Mother said in a different message that there is a future where every nation would melt-down their nuclear weapons to regain true and lasting peace on earth. Can a person even imagine what such a beautiful moment that would be for our children and our children’s children? I want that future for the generations yet to come.

I have read the prophecies. I know the stark realities for the future for good and for evil that are at stake in this presidential election. I want Trump to win not just because it would be good for me, but it would be good for the entire world and for the Greater Glory and Honor of God.

In conclusion, I know that many people are concerned and share the same sentiments that I have written here. It can be emotional thinking about what may happen for this coming week until November 8th.

I want to finish this commentary with a heavenly message that Our Lord gave tonight at Holy Love Ministry. It will help people to focus their thoughts and their prayers in the coming days.

I love you all. God bless my great country, America.

Jesus is here with His Heart exposed. He says:

“I am your Jesus, born Incarnate.”

“My brothers and sisters, you have many decisions and many issues at stake in this upcoming election. If you keep your hearts centered on Holy Love and the Truth, you will make the right decisions according to God's Divine Will.”

“Tonight, I'm blessing you with My Blessing of Divine Love.”

Feast of St. Therese of Lisieux

Mary, Refuge of Holy Love says:

“Praise be to Jesus.”

“Your nation's security is being challenged through its political system, as the security of life in the womb is also challenged by errant politics. You must see the connection. In this election, and between these two candidates, the issue of abortion has become a grave difference. You have had presidents who protected life in the womb and most recently presidents who aggressively opposed this same life. Please understand, for your nation to prosper once again on all levels you must value human life.”

“Today you celebrate the Feast of St. Therese the Little Flower. She is a great saint due to the Holy Love in her heart. She offered many, countless small sacrifices for the remission of the sins of others. I am asking one and all to imitate her life of penance for a favorable outcome to this election – an outcome that would give greater honor and glory to God than ever before.”

Read Galatians 6:7-10+

Synopsis: Regarding adherence of conscience to the Ten Commandments, make no mistake, a man will reap only what he sows. Therefore, do not grow weary of doing good according to the Ten Commandments and learned in the Moral Standards of Truth.

Do not be deceived; God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. For he who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption; but he who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not grow weary in well-doing, for in due season we shall reap, if we do not lose heart. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all men, and especially to those who are of the household of faith.

“The Valley of Decision”

JESUS

“After the events of Jerusalem and the unifying of the Church with Israel, I will call all the nations into the Valley of Decision. It does not need to be a physical valley because all the nations are already linked by communications. This Valley of Decisions will be a special moment in history.”

“Just as Israel was in the moment of distress, so the world itself will be in a moment of complete helplessness. But I will gather the nations and there will be a new breath in the air, a new opportunity, when all the nations will be united into the light. Some nations will leave the Valley and return to darkness, but most will stay in the light. Armaments will be limited. Money will be spent on food. There will be international cooperation that has been sought by many but never brought about.”

"I will give these blessings to all the nations in the Valley of Decision as a free gift from my hands. There will be peace and a new springtime."

"A Return to a Non-Nuclear Age"

MARY

"As far as the East is from the West, so is the distance now between the heavenly Father and mankind. The human race is hurtling down this road which it has chosen. The speed picks up and the distance from God grows greater. So, I come to search and to confront, to speak and to urge. I am the final barrier protecting mankind. I must stop him in his tracks and turn him around so that the ultimate forces of destruction are not released."

"It seems impossible to mankind that these forces will be used. For decades now, mankind has lived in an atomic age. At first, this caused great fears but as the years went on and as these bombs were not used, mankind learned to live in an atomic age, as if the span of years guaranteed that the bombs would never be used."

"How foolish this is. Has man ever invented a destructive force which he has not used? Does not a moment come, when someone, in desperation, does not resort to the final weapons at his disposal? Are these weapons not at the disposal of so many? So, what precludes a use of these nuclear arms? And if one atomic bomb is used, will it be the last one or only the first one, as other nations unleash their nuclear might in retaliation? The result is too devastating to even imagine. No nation would have the resources to come to the rescue and to offer even the minimum of help."

"I paint this picture so as to confront mankind as he hurtles down this road away from the heavenly Father. (I will say this). The weapons exist and the enmity between nations exists because of Satan's hopes and plans. He has engineered all of this, raising up people who have brought this about, stirring up hearts that selfishly looked to their own prominence in the world. Now the world is an armed camp. What can be done?"

"There must be a nuclear melt-down that removes the power of these armaments, which makes them ineffective, where nations will want to destroy these weapons forever. There will be no lasting peace until every atomic weapon is destroyed and man returns to the simplicity of the pre-atomic age. Can this ever happen? It is the only solution. These arms cannot continue to be in man's power and never be used. Can man return to that moment when these weapons of war never existed? I hold that grace in my Immaculate Heart and I await the consecration of Russia."

“Satan’s Drama”

JESUS

“A director does not begin the first act of his drama unless the script is totally written and all the actors are trained to play their parts. Once the drama begins, the other acts must follow.”

“The opening act of Satan’s drama was the Egyptian uprising. All the other Mideast violence is the introductory act, which takes place in front of the curtain. When this opening act is finished, then the curtain will open and the whole world will see the fullness of the stage. So, the uprising in Egypt is more than just a first act. It is a signal that Satan’s drama has begun.”

The Drama’s Conclusion

“What is the conclusion of his drama? Is there any doubt? He wants to turn earth into a hell, the whole earth, not just the Middle East. Satan wants to cast his fire upon the earth before I can cast my fire.”

“He does not know, however, that I intend to destroy his story, to send people onto his stage that would change the plot so he does not succeed. If his drama is allowed to unfold according to his time table, more and more of the world will be destroyed. The world does not see these Middle East events for what they are. The world thinks they are passing events (just like what went before) because Satan has not yet pulled back the curtain and revealed the whole stage. When it is pulled back, the world will see these events as much more serious than they could ever understand.”

“Coming to the Brink”

MARY

“I watch over all my children but they must be attentive because they walk amid great dangers and are totally unaware of the forces that constantly pull them into the darkness. Once in the darkness, they lose my light and are subject to so many errors in judgment, errors which become embedded in their mind and form the so-called “wisdom” by which the world sees and judges.”

“How can I give my light to those whose minds are filled with errors and darkness but believe they have “wisdom”. All my normal helps of speaking to them and enlightening them are useless (like water flowing over a gigantic rock). What can I do to bring them into the light so they do not suffer eternal darkness? This is my eternal quest, my unchanging goal – to save all the world from eternal damnation. This goal is so important that I do everything to bring it about.”

“So, what do I do when a person and not just one person, but a whole society, a whole nation has slipped into a perpetual darkness and has accepted so many errors, that these errors have become the conventional wisdom. Answer me. What can I do?”

“I must bring that person, that society and that nation to the brink. The “brink” means to that point where they can still turn back but also where they will destroy themselves if they foolishly continue.”

“That is what I will do. I will bring people and societies and nations to the brink. Each will arrive at the brink by the sins they have committed. If the sins are sexual, then their sexual sins will bring them to the brink. If their sins are addictions, then their addictions will bring them to the brink. If their sins are economic, then their economic sins will bring them to the brink. My purpose is obvious. At the brink, they can still turn back. To turn back, they must see what brought them there, the particular sin that formed their false “wisdom”. The brink, therefore, has a purpose. The person will see the sin that brought them to this point and they will see what they must do to return to the path of light. O reader, O society, O nation, I will be with you even when your sins lead you to the brink.”
