

UNDERSTANDING END TIMES PROPHECY:
The Importance of Jerusalem, the Abomination of Desolation, and the Rebuilding of the Third Temple

By a soul
(Shrove Tuesday, February 13, 2018)

Two weeks ago, when I was writing my special commentary, “Armageddon Is Not What People Think” (<https://maryrefugeofholyllove.com/the-great-tribulation/armageddon-is-not-what-people-think-by-a-soul/>), I felt it placed upon my heart that I write a commentary about the Abomination of Desolation. The fact was, in my research for my Armageddon commentary, I did a quick internet search on the Abomination of Desolation to find out what current Catholic teaching was on the subject. And in the process, I became shocked to learn that there are various interpretations of what the Abomination of Desolation might be, but there was no one definitive agreement accepted by the Catholic Church.

The reason this finding shocked me is because frankly, up until this moment in time, I thought everybody knew what the Abomination of Desolation spoken about in Holy Scripture was. In August 2016, I wrote an important commentary called, “The Warning And Its Aftermath – The Suffering of Purgatory as Penance for Sin” (<https://maryrefugeofholyllove.com/2016/08/10/the-warning-illumination-of-conscience-the-suffering-of-purgatory-as-penance-for-sin/>) and in that writing, I wrote about how through a mystical experience, the Lord allowed me to witness the Abomination of Desolation while at Holy Mass. When I wrote that writing over two years ago, I did not explain what the Abomination of Desolation was, as I assumed that everyone would know what I was talking about. So, I was indeed shocked when I did a quick internet search two weeks ago and learned that there was no agreement on its meaning in the Catholic Church.

So then, I did a related search and realized that there are some matters of End Times prophecy that I need to write further on and explain. Not because I consider myself to be an expert or prophet—I am not—but, because I realized that sometimes, I have been assuming that people already know such details about the End Times, and yet, I may have been speaking above people's heads.

The fact is, I would like people to know what I am speaking about—to be at least on the same common page, sorta speak. I realized that I need to define the meaning of certain things deeper and I do not want to leave anyone behind in understanding. I want everybody to “get it” and have their unspoken questions answered.

Now, that being said, this special commentary that I am about to write is based on my understanding and interpretation of Catholic prophecy. Unlike some commentaries that I have written this past year which were based on supernatural knowledge given to me by Heaven, this particular commentary is different. Although I did have the mystical experience of witnessing the Abomination of Desolation in 2011, so I know exactly what it is, for the most part, this commentary is based on my private study of Catholic prophecy. I have not received independent heavenly confirmation that my interpretations are correct, but I will share what I believe and leave it up to readers to decide for themselves if they agree.

But, at least, everyone will be on the same page with me!

And so, in this special commentary, I want to address three topics:

1) The reason why the City of Jerusalem is so important in the End Times.

As Christians, we understand its obvious historical importance, but why is Jerusalem so prominent in End Times prophecy? Although many Christians know that Biblical prophecy has to be fulfilled before the Second Coming of Our Lord, Jesus Christ, most people do not understand why Jerusalem is so fundamentally important to God and the future of the world. So, I will attempt to answer the reason why God cares so much about Jerusalem and why all people should care about the fate of Jerusalem.

2) What exactly is the Abomination of Desolation according to End Times prophecy.

-and-

3) The rebuilding of the Third Temple on the Temple Mount in Jerusalem.

I would like to address this thorny issue as there is currently a Islamic mosque on the site of where the Third Temple would need to be rebuilt according to many Christian believers prior to the Second Coming. I have some thoughts on this topic, which are not mainstream, but I want to share them for people to consider.

PART ONE – THE IMPORTANCE OF JERUSALEM

Now, I will be very open and frank about this. I am not well-versed in Biblical matters and I do not consider myself knowledgeable in Holy Scripture. The fact is, I read and ponder a lot of heavenly messages, but I do not scour Sacred Scripture engrossing myself in Biblical prophecy. So, I know a lot of prophecy, but that is because Heaven revealed it in messages that I believe in and not because I intensely study Holy Scripture. So, I cannot quote scripture passages all over the place supporting my interpretations, but I can quote Our Lord and Our Lady, which is exactly what I will do!

The fact is, up until a few years ago, if someone asked me why Jerusalem is so important, I would have answered, well, that is because Our Lord, Jesus Christ, died and resurrected there. But, beyond that, I would not have been able to answer the simple question of why Jerusalem is still important—still relevant—for today's world. As a Christian, I know Jerusalem has important significance in fulfilling Biblical prophecy, but beyond that fact, I was clueless as to why people should generally care about this small city in the Middle East.

Thank God He rescued me from my ignorance! It was not until I found the messages of Locutions To The World that I had my “eureka” moment of realizing why Jerusalem mattered. Because Our Lord and Our Lady told us why in very clear and understandable language. Our Lord and Our Lady explained the Holy Bible passages that I was not reading to me. And so, while I still cannot quote exact scripture passages, I can first tell you plainly why and then quote Heaven's messages to support why Jerusalem is so important in the Holy Eyes of God and why it still matters today to us.

Firstly, God promised the ancient Jews that peace to all the nations of the world would first come through Jerusalem, known as the “City of Peace” in Hebrew. This is a sacred covenant that God swore to Himself to always keep. Only when there is true peace found in Jerusalem, will true peace be then given and flow out to all the nations of the entire world. Thus, the entire peace of the world is solely dependent on the future of Jerusalem.

Our Lady has said that satan knows Holy Scripture well and that is why he is constantly focusing his attacks on the city of Jerusalem throughout history. satan is well-aware of the covenant that God swore to Himself regarding Jerusalem and that the fate of the peace of the world rests entirely on the future of Jerusalem. satan knows that if he can destroy Jerusalem, he will set back the Divine Plan for mankind and he can ultimately win the heavenly war.

The fact is, all people should care about the fate of Jerusalem—not simply Jews and Christians—because God has guaranteed the entire world His eternal peace through this sacred city. If mankind truly desires world peace, he must first seek it in Jerusalem.

Secondly, the shedding of all human blood is sacred to God and the blood of the martyrs sanctifies the place that it is shed making the land holy. This is why Rome is so holy—not because of the beautiful buildings—but because so many early Christians shed their blood to pass on the Christian faith to the future generations. And so, God honored the early Christians, St. Peter and St. Paul and so many others, their sacred shedding of blood with the living and breathing testament of the Catholic Church for two thousand years.

Yet, there is an even Greater Anointing of Sacred and Holy Martyr's Blood by Our Lord, Jesus Christ, the Greatest Victim and Lamb of God found in the City of Jerusalem. By the Shedding of His Holy Blood, all future generations of mankind are to be blessed by God—all centered in Jerusalem. Rome is only a temporary home for God's people. Jerusalem is the true everlasting home meant by Our Lord for His family.

satan knows that if he can destroy Jerusalem, he will destroy all the future generations of Christendom. By our weapons, we are the first generation capable of destroying all mankind and the earth. Our Lady has said that this generation that is currently living today in this world is the “hinge” upon which the fate of all future generations of mankind rests. It is this generation living today that will ultimately decide whether all future generations will live in everlasting peace, or will be lost and the Divine Plan ruined.

satan's ultimate plan is to make earth another hell. What does that mean? Our Lady has revealed that it is a future in which every light of God is crushed and eliminated for all future generations of mankind. Our Lady has said that there are many future children of mankind still left to be born. But, if satan wins and makes earth the hell that he envisions, all of these children would have a future of hopelessness. The last lights of Christianity would have extinguished during this present generation irrecoverable according to the Divine Plan. No, the Resurrection of Christ would not be a myth. No, the situation would be much worse than that. No human child would even know how to dream of even such a possibility, because the Resurrection would be totally unknown and inconceivable by any human thought. satan's future is one in which God does not exist and all human love lost. A continual slavery of future generations to utter hopelessness and utmost despair.

As I wrote in my recent commentary, “Armageddon Is Not What People Think” (<https://maryrefugeofholyllove.com/the-great-tribulation/armageddon-is-not-what-people-think-by-a-soul/>), truly, Armageddon is not what people think it is. Yes, my friends, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, Is Returning to earth to this current generation, but only for the fact that God, Our Sweet Loving and Merciful Heavenly Father, cannot allow satan's future to be realized for the sake of all these unborn children. The grave and immediate question, though, for those presently living on earth, is how close do we want to choose in meeting satan's reality now for ourselves?

Thank God, the future generations are safe! Thank God for saving the future generations from our stupidity! But, woe to us, for the war we have already waged against all the unborn babies so far! Yes, my friends, Armageddon is not what we think it is...

And so, here are the quotes from Our Lady to think about—all from messages in Locutions To The World:

JANUARY 27, 2012

Hurtling Into Darkness

“How far has mankind traveled away from this original holiness, first with Adam and then with all those who followed. Now, the speed picks up. Man is hurtling into the very center of darkness. When he arrives there, his cause will be totally helpless. This center is called hell, where mankind possesses no holiness and cannot communicate any holiness to those who will come after.”

Covering Over the Light

“Could this ever happen – Could mankind return to the hopelessness that existed before my Son died on the cross and rose in his great victory? This is Satan’s plan. He wants to bring mankind to the point where he will be so distant from the light of the resurrection that he can never again discover that light. He wants the gospel message to be crushed and destroyed so that men’s hearts are never opened to the power of the resurrection. In this plan, many are his helpers, enemies of the gospel in every possible way.”

Heavenly Signs

“The antidote is obvious. I must raise up powerful preachers of the gospel. Even more, I will become the preacher. I am already doing this at the sites of my apparitions. I am doing this through people whom I raise up. But, even this is not enough. Mankind needs more signs and wonders. Faith is under such an attack that it needs heavenly signs and heavenly words, more than ever before. This is my promise. I will provide those signs and I will speak those words for all to see and hear. When you see and hear, know that your heavenly Mother is protecting and nourishing your faith in this time of the greatest darkness.”

JANUARY 8, 2013

“I speak about you, Jerusalem, because you are in my heart more than any other city. Currently, my son, the pope, resides in Rome, the successor of Peter and Paul who shed their blood in that city. The blood of martyrs always sanctifies the place of their sacrifice. That city becomes like the holy altar of holocausts. For centuries, the blood of Peter, Paul and all the Roman martyrs have called out to me and guaranteed the primacy of Rome in relationship to all the other churches. But the blood of Peter, Paul and the saints is not deep enough to counteract the problem of darkness that is coming upon the whole world. Its light is too dim and its anointing is too superficial. But there is another city, with a greater light and an eternal anointing, a Jerusalem sanctified by the blood of Jesus. I must raise up a pope who sees this clearly. He must view everything in faith. He cannot be satisfied with a renewal of Rome or the other Churches. He must plant the Catholic Church in the soil of Jerusalem. Only the eye of faith would even grasp that this is the plan of God to restore new life to his Church which will last until the end of time.”

AUGUST 25, 2014

All Future Generations

“Human history has many years to go. We are not at all near its end. However, the current generation will decide an important question. Will the future family of man be a tree filled with life or will it become a branch that lives in a withered form?”

“In human history, the future generation does not decide what it receives. The previous generations make those decisions and then they bequeath earth to others. What will be left? What will be handed on? These are the modern questions. What world will we leave to future generations?”

“The answers to these questions are not many years away. Earth will continue. Human life will continue. There are years and years to go before history ends. But answering the question of the future of the human race is not far away. I will say this with all of my strength, “The future generation, how mankind will exist for centuries to come, will be decided in this generation”. That is how serious are the conflicts now arising in every part of the globe. The level of human life that is bequeathed for generations to come will be decided by this generation. Can I say it any more starkly?”

“This generation is the hinge upon which all future generations will swing – to life or to death, to light or to darkness.”

“Although all of these questions are far beyond the powers of mankind, mankind still believes in its own powers, trusts its own judgments and refuses to listen to heaven. That is why I speak and why these little locutions are of such grave importance.”

PART TWO – THE ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION

Now, as I stated in the commentary introduction, when I found out two weeks ago that there were so many varying interpretations for the Abomination of Desolation mentioned in Holy Scripture, I was shocked. Upon discovering this fact, I immediately realized many things. One, I realized why there is so much confusion today in the Catholic Church about End Times prophecy in general; and two, I realized why there is so much confusion among the Protestant Church about End Times prophecy.

The fact is, if everyone plainly knew what the meaning of the Abomination of Desolation is, that would resolve a lot of misunderstanding about the End Times and the antichrist in the entire Christian Church.

But, I will be honest, and admit, that at one point in time, I did not know what the Abomination of Desolation meant either. I was clueless like many people. But, in 2010, I discovered the Book of Truth given to 7th Messenger, Maria Divine Mercy, by Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in which He literally opens up End Time prophecy and the Book of Revelation to quote Our Lord “save our sorry souls.” And well, frankly, the Book of Truth mentions all over the place about the Abomination of Desolation, although those specific words are only used twice in the Book of Truth. Truthfully, I thought everybody knew what it was, as so many people who follow this blog, MaryRefugeOfHolyLove, follow the messages given to Maria Divine Mercy.

And then, when I had my private mystical experience at Holy Mass in 2011 when I actually witnessed the Abomination of Desolation, I had no doubts about its meaning at all. Then, in 2016, when I briefly wrote publicly about witnessing the Abomination of Desolation in my purgatory commentary, I thought everybody knew what I was referring to.

Honestly, I had no idea that many people had no idea what I was talking about back then. I feel bad, as I would have attempted to clear up this confusion a long time ago. But, God Is Good, and Jesus Is obviously giving me another chance to fix the situation, and Blessed Be God, I understand even more now about it than I did over two years ago. God has a Great Plan and He Is All-Merciful. I love second chances.

Now, the Abomination of Desolation is mentioned in a few verses in Holy Scripture in the Old Testament Book of the Prophet Daniel. Then, in the Gospels of Matthew and Mark, Jesus speaks about the Abomination of Desolation referring back to the Book of Daniel. I bring these specific verses up, because I want readers of this commentary to know that the Catholic Bible—at least, the New American Bible, that is used officially by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops at Sunday Mass does not translate these verses correctly. The fact is, instead of translating the words as “Abomination of Desolation” which is the description used by Jesus in the Book of Truth to Maria Divine Mercy, the New American Bible translates the words as “appalling desolation.”

And sadly, that just adds to more of the confusion in the various interpretations used by the Catholic Church. “Appalling desolation” is inaccurate and incorrect. The Book of Truth given to Maria Divine Mercy is originally written in English and Our Lord and Our Lady use the words, “Abomination of Desolation.” So, please understand, dear readers, the proper prophetic terminology that should be used when likewise translating the Holy Bible.

Now, there may be other Catholic Bible translations that are more accurate, but for the sake of time, I just did a quick internet search and grabbed a translation that simply used the proper words. I am uncertain which Bible version it is from, but it is likely Protestant, which is fine for the purposes of this commentary.

Here are the scripture verses that I want to refer to:

Daniel 11:31

“Forces from him will arise, desecrate the sanctuary fortress, and do away with the regular sacrifice And they will set up the abomination of desolation.”

Daniel 12:11

“From the time that the regular sacrifice is abolished and the abomination of desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days.”

Matthew 24:15-21

“Therefore when you see the Abomination of Desolation which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place (let the reader understand)...”

Mark 13:14-19

“But when you see the Abomination of Desolation standing where it should not be (let the reader understand), then those who are in Judea must flee to the mountains...”

Alright, let me plainly explain what the Abomination of Desolation is. It is actually very obvious although satan has tried very hard to obscure its meaning down through the centuries throughout the Christian Church—Catholic and Protestant.

The Abomination of Desolation is the elimination of the Most Holy Eucharist, the Most Precious Body and Blood of Our Lord, Jesus Christ, from the Holy Mass and Holy Tabernacles. It is the invalid consecration by a priest rendering the bread and wine impotent to the Lord.

That was the mystical experience that I witnessed in 2011 that made me immediately run out of my Catholic parish in horror. I witnessed the Abomination of Desolation—the invalid consecration of the “Eucharist” by a satanic priest and the resulting empty tabernacle.

I was horrified.

And so, now truly knowing the meaning of the Abomination of Desolation, Catholic readers will now readily understand why the words, “appalling desolation” is not the correct translation for these Bible verses. It is very clear that “Abomination of Desolation” is exactly what it is—the words are very obvious in interpretation and properly chosen by Our Lord and Our Lady in the Book of Truth once aptly understood.

And now, truly understanding the meaning of the Abomination of Desolation, it is also very clear that any Protestant interpretations are faulty from the onset. Protestants do not believe in the Real Presence of the Most Holy Eucharist. Thus, all Protestant interpretations of what the Abomination of Desolation is are wrong—no matter how honest and sincere the person may be in seeking the correct interpretation of Holy Scripture.

Only Christians who believe in the Real Presence of Our Lord in the Most Holy Eucharist will be able to discern what the Abomination of Desolation is—when and if it happens in the Christian Church. Only Catholics and Orthodox Christians believe in the Real Presence of Christ.

Sadly, though, most faithful Catholics who should intuitively know what the Abomination of Desolation means do not. Catholic interpretations are all over the place for the “appalling desolation” and many Catholics who follow End Times prophecy would rather believe in faulty Protestant errors than spiritually “risk” following a “condemned” visionary, Maria Divine Mercy, and the Book of Truth.

The Catholic Church is in grave trouble. Everyday, the Church is approaching the tragic day of the Abomination of Desolation. The Holy Eucharist is the final hurdle for the antichrist to overcome to enter the Catholic Church and gain control of the universal faith and ultimately, mankind. Please read my special commentary, Exposing Satan’s Evil Agenda – Part One – The Antichrist (<https://maryrefugeofhollylove.com/exposing-satans-evil-agenda-part-one-the-antichrist-by-a-soul/>), to gain more knowledge about this fact.

The sad truth is that the prophetic signs are all there for people to see—just witness everyday the Catholic news—but people would rather chose to be deliberately blind. People are so afraid of being disobedient to Mother Church for threatened fear of losing their immortal souls—they do not realize the precarious situation they have placed themselves in to satan.

It is like watching the sinking of the Titanic and wondering if people will grab the last lifeboat when the Abomination of Desolation happens.

What will it take for people to finally wake-up?

PART THREE – THE REBUILDING OF THE THIRD TEMPLE

In this final part of the commentary, I want to address the issue of the rebuilding of the Third Temple in Jerusalem. It is a contentious issue among Jews and Christians, because the site for the possible rebuilding of the Third Temple—the Temple Mount—already is home to a Muslim mosque. It actually one of the most holiest sites in Islam, as it is believed to be the site in which the Prophet Muhammad ascended to Heaven. Yet, many Bible-loving Christians believe that the Third Temple must be rebuilt to fulfill End Time prophecy before the Second Coming of Our Lord can take place; while many Jews believe that the Third Temple must be rebuilt so the promised Messiah can come, etc.

Now, I, a soul, cannot compete with a Bible-loving Christian. Like I said, my knowledge of various Holy Scripture passages on prophecy is next to non-existent. I am familiar with some of the Book of Revelation, but I know nothing about Old Testament prophecies about the End Times. I simply cannot quote any verses or passages from Sacred Scripture to “back-up” what I am about to say. Also, what I am about to say are my own private thoughts—I have not been given any special “heavenly insight” on this particular topic of the rebuilding of the Third Temple. However, what I am about to say, I base on my study of heavenly messages.

I do not claim perfect discernment, but I offer my thoughts for your consideration and I hope people can be blessed in some way.

Now, I want to reveal that I have a bias. The fact is, I have always been skeptical about the prophetic need for the Third Temple to be rebuilt in Jerusalem. The idea of the rebuilding of the Third Temple features so prominently in many End Time prophecy circles, especially, among Protestant Christians. But, frankly, this belief always bothered me, long before I encountered any modern-day Catholic prophecies, and only knew simply of Medjugorje and Garabandal.

It bothered me for two reasons: one, because animal sacrifices were abolished and replaced by the True Sacrificial Lamb of God—Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in the Most Holy Eucharist; and two, it just seemed odd to me that any building—even if it is the Temple of God—had to be rebuilt before Our Lord, Jesus Christ, could return in the Second Coming. The fact is, I have always believed that the Return of the Lord is solely the prerogative of Our Heavenly Father. It is not dependent on any effort of mankind but is wholly the discretionary choice of when Our Heavenly Father deems it to be so.

So, on many levels, this prophetic belief has been troublesome to me. It just never made complete sense.

Now, recently, I have learned that many Bible-loving Christians base their belief on the necessity of the Third Temple being rebuilt on the same Holy Scripture verses that I quoted about the Abomination of Desolation. Simply put, the Book of Daniel and the Gospels of Matthew and Mark speak about a temple existing in which sacrifices are being offered and the antichrist abolishing those sacrifices resulting in the Abomination of Desolation before God.

However, I just shared in the previous section what the Abomination of Desolation truly means according to Our Lord in the Book of Truth given to 7th Messenger, Maria Divine Mercy. It is the abolishment of the Holy Eucharist in the Holy Mass. It is the absence of the Real Presence of Our Lord in the Most Holy Eucharist.

And in that previous section, I also stated that no matter how honest and sincere a Protestant Christian may be in seeking to understand Sacred Scripture, all Protestant interpretations of the Abomination of Desolation are inherently wrong, because they do not believe in the Real Presence of Our Lord in the Most Holy Eucharist. Therefore, all such interpretations are faulty.

Now, I do not mean to cause friction with my dear Protestant brothers and sisters in Christ. Truly, I admire many Protestant Christians for their fervent belief and honestly, I wish that I was as knowledgeable of the Holy Bible as my Protestant friends. Indeed, Our Blessed Mother even once said in a Holy Love message that many Protestant Christians have more love for Our Lord than many cradle Catholics. Such a compliment by Our Lady! Wow!

But, I will be frank. I do not believe that the Third Temple needs to be rebuilt in Jerusalem in order for Our Lord to return in the Second Coming. I believe it is a flawed understanding of Sacred Scripture. The fact is, in the Book of Truth, it has been revealed that the Vatican will be destroyed in a fire, resulting in the antichrist ruling in a renovated church building in the outskirts of Rome—a satanic temple built full of occult artifacts and symbols.

Also, as I wrote in my special commentary, “The Great Warning, Islam, and the Divine Plan” (<https://maryrefugeofholyllove.com/2017/08/12/special-commentary-the-great-warning-islam-and-the-divine-plan-by-a-soul/>), it has been revealed in Catholic prophecy that the antichrist is of the Islamic religion. He is the Muslim version of Isa—the Jesus of the Koran—who is prophesied will “break all crosses” of the Christians in Islamic End Time prophecy. This “Jesus” (antichrist) will unite all faiths in one universal religion taking his seat in Rome. So, if this Catholic prophecy is true that the antichrist is the Jesus of the Koran, it does not make sense that the Third Temple would need to be rebuilt on the Temple Mount. The mosque that already exists there would perfectly suit the purposes of the antichrist for ruling in Jerusalem.

The fact is, all the conditions are ripe for the antichrist to take rule any time now in the Great Tribulation, which Our Heavenly Father has revealed at Holy Love Ministries (<http://www.holylove.org>), is the current time period mankind has entered—the First Seal of the Apocalypse has been broken! We do not need to witness a Third Temple being rebuilt in Jerusalem before the antichrist can take power.

The scary fact is, the temple already exists for the Jesus of the Koran. It has been there all this time ready by satan for the End Times.

Now, I want to reiterate that these thoughts that I have shared with you all in this section are simply my own thoughts not gained from heavenly insight. Again, these are my conclusions based on my understanding of heavenly messages that I have pondered, but I do not claim perfect discernment.

Finally, I want to conclude this part with something that is very important for me to share. It is my own personal belief, but it truly means a lot to me to say. I address this to all Christians, but in particular, Catholic and Orthodox Christians, because they, most of all, believe in the Real Presence of Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in the Most Holy Eucharist.

It is my honest and sincere belief that no Christian should support the idea of the rebuilding of the Third Temple on the Temple Mount. I say this because the sole purpose of rebuilding the temple would not be to glorify the Lord. The temple would be supported by Christians to be solely rebuilt so as to set-up a scenario where animal sacrifices could be offered again to God. This would then lead to a possibility where the antichrist could enter and create the Abomination of Desolation, thereby triggering somehow the prophetic need for Our Lord to return to earth.

I have already expressed my personal belief that the Return of Our Lord is not dependent on any effort of mankind. It is solely the prerogative of Our Heavenly Father.

But, more importantly, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, died on the Cross to complete the Final Covenant before God Our Father. Our Heavenly Father spared nothing in His Great Love for His undeserving and wayward children, mankind, in giving us His Only-Begotten Son at the Cross. The Sacrificial Gift of the Most Holy Eucharist in the Holy Mass completes the Final Act of this Sacred Covenant by God with mankind.

Truly, with the most profound love in my heart for the Sacredness of the Most Holy Eucharist, I say to you, my dear brothers and sisters in Christ, to offer again animal sacrifices in a rebuilt Third Temple would not glorify God at all. It would be the most complete and utter insult to God on such a high degree that I cannot even fathom how much such an act would truly break the Paternal Heart of Our Loving Heavenly Father.

Honestly, I do not even want to contemplate how hurt Our Father would be by this.

CONCLUSION

In closing, I want to say that I did not expect that I would write so many pages on these topics. I also want to say that I did not expect that this writing would be “so intense” in nature. I realize that I wrote a lot about some very serious stuff. Part of me wants to attempt to end this commentary on a more “cheery note,” but I do not want to diminish in any way what I wrote even though yes, these are intense topics to think about.

So, I will simply just conclude by expressing my ever-earnest desire for others to be blessed by God through my writings. That is always my intention when I decide to do a writing. That God and Our Lady can somehow use me to help others become closer to God and His Love.

Thank you very much for reading this commentary.

I love you.
