

SPECIAL COMMENTARY:
Please Take The Urgent Jericho Prayer March Request Seriously

By a soul

(March 1-3, 2019, Month Dedicated To Saint Joseph, Foster Father Of Jesus)

A few days ago, I made a very important post regarding a “Jericho Prayer March” requested by Heaven. Hopefully, you have read the posting and are responding to the prayer need. Here is the link to the message if you would like to learn more:

URGENT Prayer Request – February 2019 – Jericho Prayer March – Major Supernatural Battle Taking Place

<https://maryrefugeofholyllove.com/2019/02/26/urgent-prayer-request-february-2019-jericho-prayer-march-major-supernatural-battle-taking-place/>

I am writing this commentary to encourage as many people to participate in this prayer initiative. Even though the original end date was March 1st, it has been extended by Heaven so more prayer warriors can be reached. So, whenever you receive notice of this prayer need, please commit yourself to doing 4 rosaries for the first 7 days, then whatever you can do prayer-wise afterwards for the Jericho Prayer March. It is very important and serious.

Now, I, “a soul,” am not associated in any way with the original recipients of the heavenly messages through Holy Family Refuge (<https://www.childrenoftherenewal.com/holyfamilyrefuge>). I do not know the chosen messenger, although I am very supportive of the heavenly messages that he receives, which I post on my blog, MaryRefugeOfHolyLove, for others to consider and discern as well. The heavenly messages have proven to be authentic over time and I am glad that I can bring the heavenly messages to a greater online audience, especially, prayer warriors on this blog. However, when I saw this original request, I realized that I needed to write an accompanying commentary, so people understand more fully why this request is urgent and very serious. Because the timing of this request is very much connected to the behind-the-scenes work that I do for the success of this blog.

Again, I am not associated with Holy Family Refuge in any capacity, but as followers of MaryRefugeOfHolyLove know, sometimes, God and Our Lady desire me to do tasks that advance the Divine Plan on earth. Normally, I do not receive “locution-like” messages or apparitions; instead, Heaven communicates with me through other special graces so that tasks can be completed. Examples of this would be the Two Appeals that I wrote for Pope Francis and my beloved country, America, as well as the entire existence of this blog (because truly, everything you see has been the result of Heaven's help and inspiration—please do not think this blog is the result of my efforts alone—I am simply not that smart and clever enough to do all this myself—All Glory To God).

And so, I want to “peel back” and write a little about what I have been doing behind-the-scenes, so people know how important prayer is for the fundamental success of those chosen instruments by Heaven who are advancing the Divine Plan. This includes the messenger through Holy Family Refuge and others, because Our Lady is seeking to draw everyone and their various pieces together now, for the welfare and salvation of the whole of mankind.

The fact is, Heaven lost two major battles these past few months. The first battle is somewhat publicly known and the second battle is only known by a few people. But, I feel that I need to speak about them so people understand how grave the current spiritual situation is and how high the stakes are. The Jericho Prayer March request is no joke.

Now, the first major battle recently lost by Heaven was the November 6, 2018 mid-term elections in the United States. This is when the liberal Democratic Party regained control of the House of Representatives in the U.S. Congress. However, I know that the spiritual battle was very, very close and Christians could have won the election if there had been enough intense prayer.

How do I know this? Because satan attacked me during the three weeks before the mid-term elections to distract me from focusing on the mid-term elections on my blog, MaryRefugeOfHolyLove. I suffered from extreme fatigue, demonic nightmares, and even attacks by demonic dogs (thank God for my Holy Sword given to me during the July 2018 Healing Conference with visionary, Anna Marie of the Apostolate of the Green Scapular), etc. I did not understand why I was undergoing such intense spiritual warfare at the time until the day of the mid-term elections happened. Then, on the day of the elections, my computer was going berserk. The computer was sluggish and freezing up. I would type words and they would get erased on the screen. My computer would crash and I had to reboot it several times. And sometimes, I would get the “rainbow” screen with all the pretty pixel colors (not!). The whole day I was praying constantly to St. Michael the Archangel, St. Zechariah (guardian angel of the U.S.), and the Blessed Mother to type just a simple sentence.

satan was not holding back any stops on me.

I reveal this, because I consider myself to be a “small fry” in terms of being a target by satan. I do not consider myself to be a chosen soul in any way—I am simply a person who gets asked sometimes to do things for Heaven. But, the fact is, although my audience is small, most of the people who follow this blog are amazing prayer warriors. Our Lord has said in the Book of Truth to 7th messenger, Maria Divine Mercy, that small prayer groups can save millions of people. Simply put, it is not me, but you all that satan was trying to stop me from influencing to prayer. Your commitment to our Catholic faith and desire to help those in need by prayer is truly inspiring to me. And satan knows how devoted all of you are to God and Our Lady. satan knew that if I had been more cognizant of the elections, I could have been able to muster up more prayer from you all, dear brothers and sisters in Christ. The type of heartfelt prayer that Heaven so needs to move mountains. The type of heartfelt prayer that the Blessed Mother so needs to change the direction of the world.

As for me? I truly wish that I had realized sooner why satan had sent demonic dogs after me and other happenings. But, I literally did not put two-and-two together until election day when my computer was going berserk. Because, sadly, I, "a soul," can be a little dense sometimes. I am not perfect in my understanding of such things. No worries, though. I am not beating myself over this, although I was very sad at the time with the election results. It is a learning process.

And so, that was the first battle lost by Heaven. The mid-term elections in the U.S.

As for the second battle? This is the one that few know about. But, during the months of November and December, God prepared my soul by bringing me into another profound mystical state. As followers of this blog know, I suffer from schizophrenia, which is a severe mental illness. Most people offer up sacrificial offerings to the Lord through physical illness and physical pain. For me, my sacrificial offering comes by way of satan attacking my mind. However, this heightened attack by satan was necessary, because God desired to give a very special grace to the world. And so, after I suffered this trial with satan, God did indeed give the world this very special and very unique grace that was the culmination of several years of behind-the-scenes work that I do with writing love-letters to various people of importance within the Catholic world.

My brothers and sisters in Christ, the grace that God gave unbeknownst to the world in December 2018 was huge. I cannot reveal what exactly the grace is, but to indicate how significant the grace is from God, I will say that it involves the Miracle of Garabandal and is a very major part of the Divine Plan. The grace was so huge, I even told God in prayer beforehand, I do not know what will happen if this part of the Divine Plan gets rejected. I had a sense though that there would be dire consequences due to lack of belief.

My brothers and sisters in Christ, I do not want to place blame on anyone, but I do want to reiterate something that the Blessed Mother said once in a message through Locutions To The World. On September 19, 2011 (Feast Day of La Salette), the Blessed Mother spoke about receiving the fullness of grace and having divided hearts. In particular, She said:

“I rejoice to see those who have my gifts but I sorrow that I cannot give them even more... I give great gifts, but people accept only a portion. I want to give even greater gifts but only a portion of what I have already given is used. Does a mother put more food on a child’s plate when he has not eaten what is already there?”

Then, the Blessed Mother explained:

“If only they accepted the whole gift, the full gift, I want to give them new and greater gifts, but they do not seek the fullness. When a person wants the fullness, their heart expands. Their capacity grows. They bulge at the seams, like Peter’s boat in the miraculous catch of fish. Peter had to summon another boat. Peter never said, “Lord, you are sending too many fish”. No, he accepted all the fish and made provision that all the fish would be taken. After that, Jesus gave him the great task. He would be the “fisher of men”. Notice that the task came only because he received the full gift. He opened his heart to all that Jesus wanted.”

I share this message with you, because to be honest, much of my private love-letter writing gets rejected by people due to unbelief. I write to hearts that are very close to Our Lord and Our Lady, but almost all are self-satisfied with their limited portion of Heaven's gifts. Many are self-satisfied with promoting their “Marian devotion” and do not consider that Holy Love Ministries (<http://www.holylove.org>) could be part of their ministry work, too. Many feel that the Consecration of Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Our Lady has already been fulfilled, world peace has been achieved, and there will be no forthcoming annihilation of nations due to a potential nuclear war. And many reject the ideas about the unfolding Divine Plan that I have written about through the years on this blog, MaryRefugeOfHolyLove, through careful study and discernment of spirits.

On June 15, 2014, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, said in a message through Locutions To The World, these words:

“I must also speak clearly about the Church which has so failed the gift of Fatima. Sister Lucy was a faithful messenger. As World War II began, she alone knew why. My mother had told her that this war would break out during the reign of Pope Pius XI if the Church did not listen and heed her messages.”

“The work of Fatima and the task of Sister Lucy were meant to be fulfilled during her lifetime, but the Church did not listen to her. She was a religious, who lived a hidden convent life. She could only send messages. When these were rejected, she just sent more messages.”

Now, I cannot compare to the holiness of Sister Lucy of Fatima, but I am a little like her, in the sense that I am a woman who lives a hidden life, sending messages to various people of Catholic importance, asking to be listened to, because the Catholic Church is in crisis, but the messages keep getting rejected. Unfortunately, I do not even have the benefit of having a well-known reputation like Sister Lucy. Instead, I face a lot of stigmas—I am a lay female, I am not a religious sister or nun, I do not have formal education in Catholicism, and I suffer from a severe mental illness. Also, I believe in some heavenly messages that are not officially recognized in the Catholic Church. So, my love-letters are often rejected as not worthy of any type of belief. I keep trying to influence others to take positive action steps, but I keep running into roadblocks of unbelief like Sister Lucy.

However, Papa God has the best Divine Plan for His children. When the important grace associated with the Miracle of Garabandal was rejected, Heaven provided two different avenues for me to take to see if some of the grace from Heaven could be followed by others. I say “some of the grace,” because there is a huge part that I cannot reveal yet. Unfortunately, those two alternate methods failed and is failing again due to lack of belief. This is why I decided to release publicly the first set of love-letters that I wrote in January 2019 for healing Holy Mother Church and the World through Holy Communion and Confession. Because it is an important writing that everyone needs to read and understand.

LOVE-LETTER ONE – Healing Holy Mother Church and the World Through Holy Communion and Confession

<https://maryrefugeofholyllove.com/love-letter-one-healing-holy-mother-church-and-the-world-through-holy-communion-and-confession/>

St. Michael the Archangel gave a very important message to Catholic visionary, Ned Dougherty, on August 2, 2018 (End Times Daily, <http://www.endtimesdaily.com>). I have included the complete message below, but here are the key points. St. Michael talked about how satan and his minions were close to being defeated and that the threat of war was being diminished in the world due to grace. St. Michael talked about how it is part of God's Divine Plan and His Will for Russia and the United States to align themselves as allies for peace so that the New World Order taking shape in the European Union can be defeated. And, most especially, St. Michael said these words:

“The greatest weapon for you to help defeat the evil one is frequent veneration and reception of the Holy Eucharist. The most powerful gift of the Father in Heaven through His Son, the Redeemer, and through the power of the Holy Spirit is the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist.”

“Recognize that the Holy Eucharist is more powerful than any of the weapons of the evil one and his minions. *Recognize that in addition to your prayers and frequent veneration and reception of the Holy Eucharist that you must act as disciples and apostles to your family members, friends, and to all your brothers and sisters in Christ to encourage them also to recognize the importance of the Holy Eucharist in your prayer life daily.

“If you do as I say, you will usher in a new era of peace for humanity and contribute to the destruction of the evil one and his plans to destroy humanity.”

“The future is yours to achieve greatness for God’s children through your prayers and frequent veneration and reception of the Holy Eucharist.”

“But you must act quickly and decisively now for the evil one and his minions are near to being defeated and cast into the bowels of darkness.”

Now, the timing of this message by St. Michael the Archangel is very significant, as it was given to Ned Dougherty before the November 6th mid-term election happened, which resulted in the partial loss of control by the Republican Party (conservative party) of the U.S. Congress. And based on what I have shared publicly in this commentary, it seems like since two major battles by Heaven have been lost, this may be contributing now to the prayer need for the Jericho Prayer March for Heaven to do in these days to prevent further catastrophe. Opportunities that may have existed back months ago may no longer be available to us, because these windows to turn things completely around are closing around us. Each lost opportunity – each misstep by us on earth due to our free will choices, are more critical in effect because the consequences and repercussions are becoming more grave on mankind.

The fact is, in battles between Heaven and hell, Heaven can and does lose sometimes. Not just on the individual level of souls becoming lost in hell, but also on a societal and national level. In Locutions To The World, the Blessed Mother has said that the ultimate war is won—that Her Immaculate Heart will Triumph, because there will always be a faithful Remnant to save—however, the question is always how many of Her children will triumph with Her? In the Locutions, the Blessed Mother has said that there are nations that so shrouded in darkness that they are already lost. Presumably, this would include many parts of the Islamic world, as the Blessed Mother has called the Middle East “satan's playground.”

I hope that people will take my writing to heart about Holy Communion and Confession, as well as the Jericho Prayer March request from Holy Family Refuge seriously. I know that spending twenty minutes adoring Our Lord in Holy Communion and confessing our individual contribution to societal sins does not seem like a lot, but they are huge. I also know that they will be hard to implement, because on an individual level, it will seem embarrassing, etc. Yes, in the beginning, it will seem hard to stay on your knees, praying with your eyes closed, adoring Jesus in Holy Communion. You will feel self-conscious with satan making you think that you are being rude to the priest as he is leaving, etc. That is why I gave many supporting heavenly messages on the same webpage which explains that this is what Jesus desires—that He needs His people to stop running away from Him and to adore Him in Holy Communion. This is what St. Michael the Archangel was alluding to in his message to Ned Dougherty in August—the type of adoration that Our Lord needs in the Most Holy Eucharist—the most powerful weapon on earth.

Through adoration of Our Lord in Holy Communion, we are giving Heaven the free will permission they need to wage the supernatural battle on earth against hell. Everyone needs to seriously commit to loving Jesus in this way.

And yes, confessing our own individual contribution to societal sins will also be embarrassing, etc. I do confession face-to-face, so confessing that I do not pray enough and do enough to prevent abortion and sodomy is hard. For years, I have confessed societal sins, and yes, I have seen priests get mad at me telling me to stop confessing these things and roll their eyes at me when I am in the confessional, etc. But, believe me, priests no longer do this, now, that the sodomy scandals broke in the Catholic Church and all these infanticide laws are being passed in my beloved country. It is about making reparation to the Most Sacred Grieving Heart of Our Lord and not about maintaining self-importance before priests. The guilt of a nation needs to be confessed and atoned for – the wicked for being wicked and the good for allowing the wicked to become so wicked. As God the Father said recently at Holy Love Ministries, we need to surrender trying to please others; instead, we need to make pleasing God our number one priority. The First Commandment is to love God above all else.

Now, there are certain things that I need to explain about what is happening supernaturally right now, so people can take the Jericho Prayer March more seriously. One important fact is that before something ever manifests in the physical world, it first originates in the supernatural world. For example, if Heaven desires to take a certain action on earth, the decision is made first in Heaven to commit to doing so and “resources” will be allocated so that free will will be influenced in a positive way, so that the favorable event will take place on earth. “Resources” will include sending additional warrior angels to help and other special graces, etc. So, there is a lot of strategic planning taking place up in Heaven. Planning that can take months, even years in advance to take effect to influence actions, events, and movements, on earth.

Likewise, satan and the devils of hell plan events on earth. People may be shocked to realize this, but satan actually plans the types of sins that he desires different people to do on earth. At an infant's baptism, the Lord assigns the mission that He would like the child to fulfill on earth during their lifetime as part of the Christian family. Likewise, satan is already scheming for that child's future. satan and the devils will look at the child's genetics, traits, talents, and psychological make-up, generational history and makeup and sins of the family, etc., and will plan accordingly.

And so, right now, Heaven is asking for our free will permission for the Jericho Prayer March to take place now, so that coming events in the future can be altered in a positive way and not continue on the same downward path that satan is leading the world on towards a potential nuclear war and other catastrophes, etc. Heaven desires to intervene by planning a better future for all of us and not the future that satan desires of greater sin, destruction and death.

The next important fact that I need to stress relates to abortion. As I have commented many times before (along with supporting heavenly messages), is that every time an abortion is committed on earth, a devil is permitted to be released from hell to roam the face of the earth and to especially attack the family and people who would have been influenced by that child's life. Now, please understand these key facts about abortion:

- 1) There have been almost 2 billion abortions committed during this past century. This means that there are almost 2 billion devils currently roaming the face of the earth.
- 2) All devils have the ability to bi-locate. This means that one devil can torture and tempt multiple people at once. Also, as written in Sacred Scripture, one warrior angel can slay 185,000 human persons in one night. Therefore, devils have this same capability if God through His heavenly angels did not restrain them.
- 3) When abortion first became legal worldwide, God in His Infinite Mercy did not suddenly release the worse of the devils of hell. No, it is not as if one legal abortion was performed and suddenly satan became unchained. No, God in His Mercy permitted the least powerful devils to be released first, then, as the crime of abortion increased, so, too, the more powerful higher-level devils started being unchained. Now, today, with the world looking so sinfully awful with infanticide, the worse of the barrel is being let loose. We are literally seeing the dredging of the bottom worse of the most powerful of hell now.

Now, taking the key points that I just shared about abortion, it is important to understand something else. As everyone knows, and as written in Sacred Scripture, there was a supernatural battle between the good angels and the devils at the dawn of Creation, and 1/3 of the angels were kicked out of Heaven and fell to earth—including the ringleader, satan. Now, that supernatural battle between the angels—as great as it was at the beginning of Creation—is not as great as the supernatural battle taking place right now, which Heaven is asking us to pray for in the Jericho Prayer March.

Jesus said these words: “I am calling All My Prayer Warriors: It is true; a big Spiritual Battle is happening above you – bigger than any battle in the history of mankind.”

Now, how can this be? My brothers and sisters in Christ, when the spiritual battle at the start of Creation happened, mankind did not exist. When God gave the command to St. Michael to lead the angelic forces against satan and his devils, they were not fighting for the salvation of any souls. The angels and devils already made their decision for/or against God. The heavenly angels were just battling the devils to kick them one-by-one out of Heaven. It was a one-time cosmic event.

Now, the stakes are much different and higher. The heavenly hosts—the good angels—are fighting for their little brothers and sisters, who are weak and helpless against a formidable foe—satan and his devils. Human souls are for the most part clueless that their eternal fate is being fought for moment-by-moment. And the spiritual battle never stops. Just imagine what it must be like to have all of Heaven and hell fighting each other with no rest. St. Michael and the Blessed Mother are everywhere. And abortion is acting like a revolving door. A devil gets chained up in hell—then, an abortion happens, and that devil is unchained again. This spiritual battle is relentless and fierce, because we are talking about the eternal fate of over 7 billion people on earth—finalized only at the moment of our last breath.

This is what is happening, especially now, which most people are oblivious to. The battle is never-ending—this is why constant prayer is so important. This is what Jesus is trying to draw our attention to, in Heaven's request for the Jericho Prayer March. Heaven needs our free will permission to intervene and stop all this evil taking place on earth. The Consecration of Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Our Blessed Mother has not taken place yet, but God the Father in His Sweet Mercy is giving us one more chance to change the direction of the world and stop a catastrophic war and prevent an annihilation of nations. Our free will permission for Heaven to act comes through our prayers. Prayer results in winning special graces that cannot be given otherwise. Please take heed to this Jericho Prayer March request.

Here is a Holy Love message that I want to re-share again, because it is related to what I just wrote about this great spiritual battle:

November 8, 2011

Alanus (My Guardian Angel) says:

“Praise be to Jesus.”

“Once again I come to you to explain the action of angels in the world today. Sadly, angels can offer the most profound influence, but if the heart has been given over to evil, good inspirations will be quelled.”

“Angels are most active today around bodies of government where hearts are challenged to make evil decisions which affect thousands of people. Where there are thousands from the celestial court, there are also minions from Satan's domain. These battles are becoming most apparent these days through mass media and the electronic age.”

“This is why the Lord constantly asks for prayers for the heart of the world. If the heart of the world would convert and live according to Holy Love, the inspirations of God's angels would not be cancelled out by evil; then there would be peace.”

“But today, free choice has become its own god. Opinions hold supremacy over God's laws. People believe that if they think something is justified, God will judge their choice as good. This is not so. Many souls are suffering in the afterlife as they believed in themselves first and foremost.”

“I am privileged to impart this information to you today. The angels cry out that this be heard. Disbelief in the battle between good and evil makes our job almost impossible.”

* * *

Now, there is another important matter that I need to discuss, so that people understand better what is happening in the world around us. It is not something pleasant to speak about, but I feel it is necessary that I do so, for the betterment of all. Right now, God Is trying to balance the Scale of His Mercy and His Justice. But, the accumulation of sin in the world is so great, it is tipping towards a greater outpouring of His righteous anger and holy wrath.

So, God Is removing His protective Hand over many nations now as the penalties for billions of abortions are coming due. God Is also removing His protective Hand over bodies of people due to the many sacrileges committed against the Body and Blood of Our Lord in the Most Holy Eucharist. Abortion and sacrilege are the two greatest crimes against God.

Sacrilege is the greatest crime against the First Great Commandment—to love God above all else (“Judas ate his judgment”); and abortion/infanticide is the greatest crime against the Second Great Commandment—to love neighbor as self. At Garabandal, Spain, the Blessed Mother said that the Holy Chalice of Her Son was overflowing due to sin. This was during the 1960s, when abortion and sacrilege were starting to become more common. Well, now, the Holy Chalice must be falling over on God the Father's Scale, because we are witnessing infanticide in professed Christian nations and a priesthood plagued by scandal and apostasy that has its roots in the loss of respect for Our Lord in the Most Holy Eucharist.

And so, as we begin to enter into the great time of stress and tribulation in the world, we are going to see a lot of deaths—death by natural disasters and plagues; and death by man-made disasters, such as war and massive persecution, etc. Although death is not something that God intended for Creation, people need to fundamentally understand that death by the Hand of God (i.e., natural disasters and plagues) is more favorable than death by human hands, which is death by the hand of satan. Death by natural disasters and plagues has the potential for repentance and conversion; whereas, death by nuclear war gives no time for any person to repent before their eternal fate is sealed. This is why the Blessed Mother asked recently for prayers for people whose lives will be lost due to a forthcoming natural catastrophe—which God was going to permit—so that people may wake up to the reality of His existence and His Commandments. Yet, during the same time-frame, Jesus can also ask us for prayers for the Jericho Prayer March to prevent a physical war in which many lives will also be lost.

I am not trying to be morbid, but yes, one type of death is better than the other. God knows how to bring about our eternal salvation. On the other hand, satan just wants to bring us to ultimate despair through terrible suffering and eternal death in hell as fast as he can. There is a message from the Blessed Mother found in Locutions To The World that best explains why this trial of tribulation by death will be taking place. Here it is:

May 6, 2011
“A Chastisement of Mercy”

“A time of great trial will come upon the world, a great distress of the nations. Many will die. Others will not know what to do. However, those who know me and know my words will have enough light to get through this period of darkness. The world will be purged by this extraordinary divine intervention. This is the purpose of the trial because the Father would not do this if he had any other choice. He cannot allow the world to go on as it is. If he did not intervene, as drastic as this is, life on earth would be even worse. Man would inflict on man unheard of sufferings as the weapons of mass destruction are released by those who are under the control of the evil one. So, what looks like divine chastisements are really acts of his mercy. God will purge the world before man destroys it.”

And so, I bring this important distinction up, because I believe that we are going to be seeing more and more heavenly messages given where Heaven asks for prayer for the dying in natural catastrophes that can no longer be stopped due to sin; while at the same time, Heaven will be asking for prayer to prevent deaths due to acts of war and human aggression. This distinction needs to be made, because it might appear confusing to people who will wonder why is God permitting deaths in one type of situation whereas Heaven is asking for prayer that death not happen in other cases.

Simply put, God always has our best intentions at heart, especially, our salvation. Satan is evil personified and wants to damn everyone in hell.

In conclusion, I want to bring attention to a Holy Love message that was given by Papa God on February 20th—two days before the Jericho Prayer March request was made through Holy Family Refuge. Papa God spoke not just about walls that protect boundaries of countries, but about the wall that each of us have to an extent around our spiritual hearts. It is this spiritual wall that, hopefully, the Jericho Prayer March will break down so that evil does not gain the upper-hand and win this battle.

God the Father – “Today, I would like to speak to you about walls – Take heed of what I have come to earth to tell you”

God bless you all. Thank you for considering this writing.

“Receiving the Fullness”

MARY

“I rejoice to see those who have my gifts but I sorrow that I cannot give them even more. I will explain what causes this sorrow. I give great gifts, but people accept only a portion. I want to give even greater gifts but only a portion of what I have already given is used.”

“Does a mother put more food on a child’s plate when he has not eaten what is already there?”

“This is the problem which I will address. Let us begin.”

Divided Hearts

“My children come to me with divided hearts. Oh yes, they are my children. They are even religious and priests. They are good and they desire eternal life. They want my gifts and would never want to be counted among those who reject me. They even join religious orders or participate with religious groups. How I would bless them! How I would use them as great instruments in the coming darkness! Yet, I cannot use them for the great tasks that lie ahead because of their divided hearts. They want me but they also want their personal life. They want the kingdom but they also want the world. They are satisfied with a portion of my gifts.”

“If only they accepted the whole gift, the full gift, I want to give them new and greater gifts, but they do not seek the fullness. When a person wants the fullness, their heart expands. Their capacity grows. They bulge at the seams, like Peter’s boat in the miraculous catch of fish. Peter had to summon another boat. Peter never said, “Lord, you are sending too many fish”. No, he accepted all the fish and made provision that all the fish would be taken. After that, Jesus gave him the great task. He would be the “fisher of men”. ”

“Notice that the task came only because he received the full gift. He opened his heart to all that Jesus wanted. ”

“Oh, devout soul, come to me. Leave behind your other desires. Empty your hands of what you grasp. Empty your heart of what you desire. I will fill you with divine favors, fill you to overflowing. Your capacity to receive will multiply. Then I can use you for the great tasks. ”

“Otherwise, you will be limited to smaller and unimportant works. If you want to do great works, open your heart fully to my favors, turning away from everything else. ”

“The Harshness of the Coming Winter”

MARY

“How difficult is the winter for so many. The people ask, “When will the springtime come?” as they look forward to the end of the cold and of the storms which often lash out at them. ”

“Mankind cannot control the winter. Its fierceness is not subject to human wills. As the storms follow, one after another, a hopelessness sets in which is allayed only by the knowledge that spring will follow. ”

“Is this situation of human history? Is a winter of destruction always followed by a springtime of restoration? In the middle of human destruction can someone look at a calendar and say, “I know when this will be over. It will soon be spring”. The seasons are subject to God’s will. ”

“Winter cannot say, “I will replace the spring”. Nature has an order given to it by the creator. ”

“Human events do not enjoy such a certainty. They are in the hands of man. They follow man’s timetable and are not subject to the order of nature. The man-made winter of harshness and suffering has no calendar. It is not automatically followed by the Spring. This is why I must speak. The harshness of winter has its times and its seasons but then it must give way. It has no choice. The heavenly Father has decreed that it be so. But, when man moves away from God, when man says, "I will determine the season". Then there are no limits to the harm or to the length of breadth, height and depth of the destruction."

"That is why I come to wrap my mantle around mankind, just like a mother wraps her child during the cold of winter. Man can begin this winter. He is free to unleash his weapons, but I am free to wrap my children in the warmest of clothes."

"Satan will not harm my little ones even with the fiercest of winters. No matter how long it lasts and what devastation he plans, because I will bundle my children in the warmest of blankets. But I must say this clearly. It is not the springtime of freedom when children can run freely. It is the winter when the children must gather around their mother. This winter will be fierce. It will seem like it will never end. But, does a baby wrapped in a warm blanket and held close by his mother, even know that it is winter? Does he even think, "When will come the springtime?" or is he quite content to be held in her arms? Come to me. I would wrap the whole world in my mantle."

"Satan's Worldwide Plan"

JESUS CHRIST

"I must speak out. I can no longer hold the words in because the world and its leaders do not understand all the events that are taking place in Iraq and Syria. These events are just flashpoints. Satan has his pot of evil boiling over, first in one place and then in another."

"Right now, Satan foresees the possibility of setting the whole world ablaze. He does not yet possess all that he needs but, for the first time, the possibility of pouring out his flames upon the whole world is becoming possible."

"To explain, I must speak about World War II. That, too, was Satan's pot of evil boiling over."

"However, at that time, Hitler and Mussolini did not contain the amount of evil that is now present. Also, there was a faithful and firm America that was a wall against that fire."

"Satan, however, did win a great victory when the atomic bomb was discovered. As the door of one evil closed, a greater door opened.”

“Satan sees two things. First, he sees the extent of his evil powers. He sees all the people whom he holds and all of the weapons which they possess. In assessing his own strength, he knows he does not yet have enough evil to cover the world.”

“Second, he sees President Obama, who single-handedly has neutralized America which now sits on the sidelines and merely follows the events. As Satan sees these two realities, he knows what he must do to seize this opportunity to bring about the moment when he can set the world ablaze. When that moment arrives, he will act immediately.”

“I must also speak clearly about the Church which has so failed the gift of Fatima. Sister Lucy was a faithful messenger. As World War II began, she alone knew why. My mother had told her that this war would break out during the reign of Pope Pius XI if the Church did not listen and heed her messages.”

“The work of Fatima and the task of Sister Lucy were meant to be fulfilled during her lifetime, but the Church did not listen to her. She was a religious, who lived a hidden convent life. She could only send messages. When these were rejected, she just sent more messages.”

“I will no longer send messages to the popes. They have never listened and they still do not listen. Instead, I will send a pope who himself is the messenger. He will need to deliver the message to no one. He knows what he must do.”

“I say all of this because no one sees the magnitude of what is happening in the Middle East nor how close Satan is to gaining the power to turn the whole world into his hell.”

BOOK OF TRUTH (Maria Divine Mercy)

“Even small prayer groups of Divine Mercy can save millions”
Saturday, April 16th, 2011 @ 22:45

My beloved daughter, the time for The Warning is now close and it will happen quickly in the blink of an eye. All will be stopped in their tracks as they witness My Great Mercy. Pray for all those in mortal sin, as a priority. They need your prayers, for many of them will drop stone dead from shock when they see the horror, as seen through My Eyes, of the sinful atrocities they have committed. Praying The Divine Mercy can save millions even if it is only a small group of devout, loving followers.

I will not give you a date, My daughter, for this Great Event. But be assured the time is now upon the world, as the evil continues to grow unabated across the entire world, so too will the Hand of My Father now fall everywhere. He will not stand back and allow these evil sinners, in league with Satan, to destroy or infect My children any longer. Shame on those self-obsessed sinners, whom I still love despite the evil stain of their sin. I ask you to pray for the forgiveness of their sins, now.

As The Warning will now take place, so too will the ecological disasters befall mankind. Prayer is your only weapon now, My children, to save yourselves and mankind from the fires of Hell. Once The Warning is over, peace and joy will prevail. And then the persecution by the New World Alliance will commence. Their power will be weakened if enough of you spread conversion and pray hard.

Don't be afraid, My beloved followers, you will work closely together to pray for the salvation of mankind. And you will save millions of souls in the process.

YOUR BELOVED SAVIOUR
JESUS CHRIST

St. Michael Archangel

Lo and Behold!

I am calling upon the Powerful Prayer Warriors of the Redeemer, the Son of God.

You are now in the end times of your world, and I call upon those of you who are in the United States and Russia, in particular, to bind yourselves together in prayer for the future of the world, for the peace and prosperity of the future will depend on your two great countries to defeat the new world order and their plans to create a third world war between your countries.

All the Redeemer's sons and daughters in the world, and particularly in the United States and Russia, must pray powerfully and support your leaders who want peace and prosperity, as opposed to the evil one's new world order which has survived and thrived through the centuries by creating divisiveness, hatred and war between the peoples of the world.

It is the plan of the Father in Heaven to defeat this evil that satan and his minions have devised against humanity, and now it is time for the people of the world to support the leaders who want nothing but peace and prosperity for the people.

For the first time in centuries, the leaders of the world can bring about world peace and democracy throughout the world, but satan and his minions will use the evil one's evil basket of tools and weapons to thwart the plans of your leaders who have the best intentions for the people.

As Powerful Prayer Warriors, it is your responsibility to support these leaders and their intentions for a better world.

The greatest weapon for you to help defeat the evil one is frequent veneration and reception of the Holy Eucharist. The most powerful gift of the Father in Heaven through His Son, the Redeemer, and through the power of the Holy Spirit is the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist.

Recognize that the Holy Eucharist is more powerful than any of the weapons of the evil one and his minions. Recognize that in addition to your prayers and frequent veneration and reception of the Holy Eucharist that you must act as disciples and apostles to your family members, friends, and to all your brothers and sisters in Christ to encourage them also to recognize the importance of the Holy Eucharist in your prayer life daily.

If you do as I say, you will usher in a new era of peace for humanity and contribute to the destruction of the evil one and his plans to destroy humanity.

The future is yours to achieve greatness for God's children through your prayers and frequent veneration and reception of the Holy Eucharist.

But you must act quickly and decisively now for the evil one and his minions are near to being defeated and cast into the bowels of darkness.

You may recognize in the air that the threat of world war is being diminished. Recognize that this is a sign from the Father in Heaven that the great transformation is near and pray that the evil one is finally thwarted in his plans to destroy humanity.

If you align yourselves in prayer and through the frequent veneration and reception of the Holy Eucharist, the power of your works will go a long way to ushering in a renewed era of peace and a New Heaven and a New Earth.

So be it!

Thanks be to God!
